PHIL 102
Introductory Logic

What makes Sherlock Holmes a good detective? He uses deductive reasoning to reach his conclusions to solve cases, meaning he arrives at his conclusions with logical certainty. In this course we will explore fundamental concepts of deductive reasoning in symbolic logic. Students will develop powerful skills to reason well and to think abstractly. This course fulfills the Quantitative Reasoning requirement. Natural World-no lab.

SUMMER 2016
4-WEEK SESSION OPTIONS:
MTRF 1:00PM TO 3:55PM or
MTRF 9:00AM TO 11:55AM

SUMMER 2016
8-WEEK SESSION OPTIONS:
TR 5:30PM to 8:00 PM or
MWF 8:00AM to 9:40AM

UIC
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
College of Liberal Arts and Sciences